MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Dear Zontians

We are now well into August and quite frankly it is the coldest I can remember. So many 0 degree mornings!

Robin & John, Pennie, Margie B, Jane and I all took advantage of the Zonta Club of Brisbane City Heart's fundraiser last Sunday and enjoyed the fabulous "Beautiful". Ah, the music! It has us all bopping in our seats. We all loved it.

On Saturday, of course, was the garage sale. I think we will be thinking long and hard about having another as it is a lot of work. We did make $600.00 and, as we say, from not much so from that aspect it works. However the work that goes into it and particularly the packing up afterwards is a challenge. Thanks to all that were able to help with the sale.

On Tuesday we will be trialling our new system at the RSL. Please order your meal before coming to the Committee meetings. On the night we will pay a meeting fee of $5.00 to Pam.

We will have the Show Gates roster at the meeting and would appreciate those who can work there. It is such a good fundraiser for us and hopefully you can commit to at least one session.

The sub-committee for the High Tea should get together soon as there is only a month to that function.

Jane and I went to the AGM for Meals on Wheels last Thursday. Amazing that the group has over $130,000.00 in the bank but as they always say, one doesn't know when the government money will disappear.

I'm not sure which committee is entertaining us this meeting so it will be a nice surprise.

Yours in Zonta

Denise
